Plaintiff's Complaint

2 I. SUMMARY

3 1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff Barbara Hubbard
4 ("Hubbard") for discrimination at the building, structure, facility, complex,
5 property, land, development, and/or surrounding business complex known as:

6 Hometown Buffet #0703
7 5881 University Avenue
8 San Diego, CA 92115
(hereafter "the Restaurant")

9 2. Hubbard seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, attorney
10 fees and costs, against Hometown Buffet, Inc. dba Hometown Buffet #0703 and 11 Lakha Properties - San Diego, LLC (collectively "Hometown Buffet") pursuant 12 to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, ( 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq.),
13 and related California statutes.

14 II. JURISDICTION

15 3. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 16 1343 for ADA claims.

17 4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel
18 California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is predicated
19 on 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

20 5. Hubbard's claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

21 III. VENUE

22 6. All actions complained of herein take place within the jurisdiction
23 of the United States District Court, Southern District of California, and venue is 24 invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

25 IV. PARTIES

26 7. Hometown Buffet owns, operates, or leases the Restaurant, and 27 consists of a person (or persons), firm, or corporation.
28

1           8.     Hubbard has multiple conditions that affect one or more major life
2 functions. Plaintiff requires the use of motorized wheelchair and a mobility-
3 equipped vehicle, when traveling about in public. Consequently, Hubbard is 4 “physically disabled,” as defined by all applicable California and United States
5 laws, and a member of the public whose rights are protected by these laws.

6                                   V. FACTS

7           9.     The Restaurant is an establishment serving food and drink, open to 8 the public, which is intended for nonresidential use and whose operation affects 9 commerce.

10          10.    Hubbard visited the Restaurant and encountered barriers (both 11 physical and intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—her ability 12 to use and enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at 13 the facility. To the extent known by Hubbard, the barriers at the Hometown
14 Buffet included, but are not limited to, the following:

- 15               • The van accessible parking stall does not have a separate sign 16               stating “van accessible;”
- 17               • The access aisle is littered with cracks in the pavement that create 18               abrupt changes in elevation and well as disrupting the smooth 19               surface;
- 20               • The entrance door requires too much force to open;
- 21               • The entrance door lacks an International Symbol of Accessibility;
- 22               • The cash register / hostess’ counter is too high;
- 23               • There is no seating designated as being accessible;
- 24               • The seating available does not provide sufficient toe or knee 25               clearance;
- 26               • The soda and drink machines are located on counters that are too 27               high and out of reach range;

- 1 • The door to the women's restroom requires too much pressure to
- 2 operate;
- 3 • The accessible stall door in the women's restroom is not self-
- 4 closing;
- 5 • The handle on the stall door requires pinching and grasping;
- 6 • There is no handle on the interior of the stall door;
- 7 • There is insufficient clearing in front of the water closet;
- 8 • The stall door swings toward the water closet, causing the entire
- 9 stall to be too small;
- 10 • The toilet tissue dispenser protrudes into the clear floor space
- 11 needed at the water closet;
- 12 • There is not 18 inches of clear space between the side wall and the
- 13 lavatory;
- 14 • The pipes underneath the lavatory are not wrapped or insulated in
- 15 any way to prevent burns;
- 16 • The operable portion of the paper towel dispense is mounted more
- 17 than 40 inches from the floor;
- 18 • The soap dispenser is not accessible due to the trash receptacle and
- 19 is out of reach range; and,
- 20 • The exit door requires too much pressure to operate.

21 These barriers prevented Hubbard from enjoying full and equal access.

22 11. Hubbard was also deterred from visiting the Restaurant because 23 she knew that the Restaurant's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, 24 and accommodations were unavailable to physically disabled patrons (such as 25 herself). She continues to be deterred from visiting the Restaurant because of 26 the future threats of injury created by these barriers.

27 12. Hubbard also encountered barriers at the Restaurant, which violate
28 state and federal law, but were unrelated to her disability. Nothing within this

1 Complaint, however, should be construed as an allegation that Hubbard is
2 seeking to remove barriers unrelated to her disability.

3 13. Hometown Buffet knew that these elements and areas of the 4 Restaurant were inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere with 5 (or deny) access to the physically disabled. Moreover, Hometown Buffet has 6 the financial resources to remove these barriers from the Restaurant (without 7 much difficulty or expense), and make the facility accessible to the physically
8 disabled. To date, however, Hometown Buffet refuses to either remove those 9 barriers or seek an unreasonable hardship exemption to excuse non-compliance.

10 14. At all relevant times, Hometown Buffet has possessed and enjoyed 11 sufficient control and authority to modify the subject property to remove 12 impediments to wheelchair access and to comply with the Americans with 13 Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 regulations. Hometown
14 Buffet has not removed such impediments and has not modified the subject
15 property to conform to accessibility standards. Hometown Buffet has 16 intentionally maintained the subject property in its current condition and has 17 intentionally refrained from altering the subject property so that it complies with 18 the accessibility standards.

19 15. Hubbard further alleges that the (continued) presence of barriers at 20 the facility is so obvious as to establish Hometown Buffet's discriminatory
21 intent.<sup>1</sup> On information and belief, Hubbard avers that evidence of this
22 discriminatory intent includes Hometown Buffet's refusal to adhere to relevant 23 building standards; disregard for the building plans and permits issued for the 24 facility; conscientious decision to the architectural layout (as it currently exists)
25 at the facility; decision not to remove barriers from the facility; and allowance
26 that Hometown Buffet's property continues to exist in its non-compliant state.

Hubbard v. Hometown Buffet
Plaintiff's Complaint

1 Hubbard further alleges, on information and belief, that Hometown Buffet is not
 2 in the midst of a remodel, and that the barriers present at the facility are not
 3 isolated (or temporary) interruptions in access due to maintenance or repairs.<sup>2</sup>

4 VI. FIRST CLAIM

5 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

6 Denial of "Full and Equal" Enjoyment and Use

7 16. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
 8 through 15 for this claim.

9 17. Title III of the ADA holds as a "general rule" that no individual
 10 shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal 11 enjoyment (or use) of goods, services, facilities, privileges, and 12 accommodations offered by any person who owns, operates, or leases a place of 13 public accommodation. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

14 18. Hometown Buffet discriminated against Hubbard by denying "full 15 and equal enjoyment" and use of the goods, services, facilities, privileges or 16 accommodations of the Restaurant during each visit and each incident of 17 deterrence.

18 Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility

19 19. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural 20 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such removal
 21 is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term "readily
 22 achievable" is defined as "easily accomplishable and able to be carried out
 23 without much difficulty or expense." Id. § 12181(9).

24 20. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not 25 readily achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or 26

27
 28

<sup>2</sup> Id.; 28 C.F.R. § 36.211(b)
Hubbard v. Hometown Buffet
 Plaintiff's Complaint

1 accommodations available through alternative methods is also specifically
2 prohibited if these methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).

3 21. Here, Hubbard alleges that Hometown Buffet can easily remove the 4 architectural barriers at the Restaurant without much difficulty or expense, and 5 that Hometown Buffet violated the ADA by failing to remove those barriers,
6 when it was readily achievable to do so.

7 22. In the alternative, if it was not “readily achievable” for Hometown
8 Buffet to remove the Restaurant’s barriers, then Hometown Buffet violated the 9 ADA by failing to make the required services available through alternative
10 methods, which are readily achievable.

11 Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

12 23. On information and belief, the Restaurant was designed or 13 constructed (or both) after January 26, 1992—independently triggering access
14 requirements under Title III of the ADA.

15 24. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities for 16 first occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren’t readily accessible to, and 17 usable by, individuals with disabilities when it was structurally practicable to do
18 so. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

19 25. Here, Hometown Buffet violated the ADA by designing or 20 constructing (or both) the Restaurant in a manner that was not readily accessible
21 to the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—when it was structurally
22 practical to do so.<sup>3</sup>

23 Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

24 26. On information and belief, the Restaurant was modified after 25 January 26, 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the ADA.

26
27
28 <sup>3</sup> Nothing within this Complaint should be construed as an allegation that plaintiff is bringing this action as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

1        27. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that 2 affects (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to
3 individuals with disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. §
4 12183(a)(2). Altering an area that contains a facility's primary function also 5 requires adding making the paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and drinking
6 fountains serving that area accessible to the maximum extent feasible. Id.

7        28. Here, Hometown Buffet altered the Restaurant in a manner that
8 violated the ADA and was not readily accessible to the physically disabled
9 public—including Hubbard—to the maximum extent feasible.

10                    Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

11        29. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies,
12 practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services,
13 facilities, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity 14 can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter their 15 nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

16        30. Here, Hometown Buffet violated the ADA by failing to make 17 reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the Restaurant, 18 when these modifications were necessary to afford (and would not 19 fundamentally alter the nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or 20 accommodations.

21        31. Hubbard seeks all relief available under the ADA (i.e., injunctive 22 relief, attorney fees, costs, legal expense) for these aforementioned violations.
23 42 U.S.C. § 12205.

24        32. Hubbard also seeks a finding from this Court (i.e., declaratory
25 relief) that Hometown Buffet violated the ADA in order to pursue damages
26 under California's Unruh Civil Rights Act or Disabled Persons Act.

VII. SECOND CLAIM

Disabled Persons Act

33. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 30 for this claim.

34. California Civil Code § 54 states, in part, that: Individuals with disabilities have the same right as the general public to the full and free use of the streets, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and other public places.

35. California Civil Code § 54.1 also states, in part, that: Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access to accommodations, facilities, telephone facilities, places of public accommodation, and other places to which the general public is invited.

36. Both sections specifically incorporate (by reference) an individual's rights under the ADA. See Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d).

37. Here, Hometown Buffet discriminated against the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—by denying them full and equal access to the Restaurant. Hometown Buffet also violated Hubbard's rights under the ADA, and, therefore, infringed upon or violated (or both) Hubbard's rights under the Disabled Persons Act.

38. For each offense of the Disabled Persons Act, Hubbard seeks actual damages (both general and special damages), statutory minimum damages of one thousand dollars ($1,000), declaratory relief, and any other remedy available under California Civil Code § 54.3.

39. She also seeks to enjoin Hometown Buffet from violating the Disabled Persons Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code § 55, and to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and incurred under California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 55.

VIII. THIRD CLAIM

Unruh Civil Rights Act

40. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 30 for this claim.

41. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons within the jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of every kind whatsoever.

42. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No business establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against any person in this state because of the disability of the person.

43. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by reference) an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

44. Hometown Buffet's aforementioned acts and omissions denied the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges and services in a business establishment (because of their physical disability).

45. These acts and omissions (including the ones that violate the ADA) denied, aided or incited a denial, or discriminated against Hubbard by violating the Unruh Act.

46. Hubbard was damaged by Hometown Buffet's wrongful conduct, and seeks statutory minimum damages of four thousand dollars ($4,000) for each offense.

47. Hubbard also seeks to enjoin Hometown Buffet from violating the Unruh Act (and ADA), and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred under California Civil Code § 52(a).

IX. FOURTH CLAIM

Denial of Full and Equal Access to Public Facilities

48. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 13 for this claim.

49. Health and Safety Code § 19955(a) states, in part, that: California public accommodations or facilities (built with private funds) shall adhere to the provisions of Government Code § 4450.

50. Health and Safety Code § 19959 states, in part, that: Every existing (non-exempt) public accommodation constructed prior to July 1, 1970, which is altered or structurally repaired, is required to comply with this chapter.

51. Hubbard alleges the Restaurant is a public accommodation constructed, altered, or repaired in a manner that violates Part 5.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Government Code § 4450 (or both), and that the Restaurant was not exempt under Health and Safety Code § 19956.

52. Hometown Buffet's non-compliance with these requirements at the Restaurant aggrieved (or potentially aggrieved) Hubbard and other persons with physical disabilities. Accordingly, she seeks injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to Health and Safety Code § 19953.

X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Hubbard prays judgment against Hometown Buffet for:

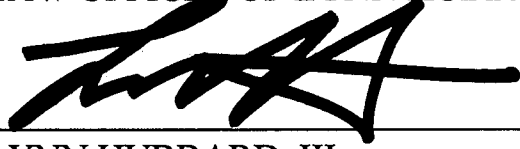

1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems proper.
2. Declaratory relief that Hometown Buffet violated the ADA for the purposes of Unruh Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.
3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of the California Civil Code (but not both) according to proof.

1 4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.<sup>4</sup>

2 5. Interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of this action.
